STEWARD TRAINING

April 24-25, 2017

8:30 AM – 4:30 PM

Neenah Labor Temple

157 South Green Bay Road, Neenah

This two-day steward training class will sharpen your skills and boost your effectiveness as a leader – enabling you to enforce your contract, represent your members, and build a more powerful organization in your workplace. Some of the things we will cover include:

- The steward's role and responsibilities
- Maneuvering through workplace issues and problems
- Enforcing your collective bargaining agreement
- Building membership involvement at the workplace
- Hearing from other people and other unions about what works for them

This class will be taught by faculty from the University of Wisconsin School for Workers. For more information about the School, visit schoolforworkers.uwex.edu or facebook.com/schoolforworkers.
